

CLAP YOUR HANDS

“All you people, clap your hands, shout to God with cries of joy.”

A member of our human team ran the race and won the prize, to be seated at the right hand of the Most High, sovereign of the earth. Together, the Most High and Christ Jesus promise us, “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes.” Resurrection, Ascension and Pentecost: can this three-in-one paschal mystery be glory for us, the answer to our cry for wholeness, our powerful key to justice and joy? Yes.

St. Andrew Announcements

Liturgy

BOWING: Bowing during worship allows our whole being to engage in prayer. Humans, mind, body, heart and soul together, are made in the image of God. Our hands, like God's, are an instrument of power. So too, our feet, our limbs, all our features share as part of creation the grandeur and beauty of the Creator. As our head and heart denote wisdom and love, so do the bones, veins and flesh signify some aspect of God written into our human body. The contemplation of the body of Christ might teach us what this deeper meaning is. It is no wonder that one young woman commented, “I had to drop my walls, my guard to bow. I felt vulnerable. It was hard.” In bowing, we are invited to go deeper into the mystery of our very own bodies carrying the Holy Spirit. You are encouraged to bow following the words of institution.

IT IS RIGHT AND JUST: We now use this response at the end of the Preface Dialogue; the priest says “Let us give thanks to the Lord our God” and our response is “It is right and just.” The priest continues the Preface with “It is truly right and just.”

St Vincent de Paul/St Andrew Emergency Services

St. Vincent de Paul Update: May 20, 2012

Air conditioner installed already! Last Monday, May 14, the good people at Anctil Heating and Cooling installed the cooling equipment into our pantry. Additional thanks go to parishioners, Paul Olson and Jerry Lindsey, who spent considerable time with Anctil to ensure that the installation was placed for maximum efficiency. The outside unit fits our campus while being unobtrusive and relatively invisible to outside elements.

Plan on attending a forum on Sunday, June 10, 11 am in the Oscar Romero Room to highlight emergency services and to get your ideas and feedback for next year. Unfortunately, Jesuit Volunteer Corps, NW, has decided not to provide a Jesuit Volunteer for 2012-13. (Our present JV, Grace McGarrick, will be leaving this July.) At the forum, along with your feedback, we will invite you to join us to keep the center open without a JV. We also want to make sure that all parishioners in need of food and rent/utility assistance know that they too are eligible for assistance.

Donations: The St. Andrew Conference of St. Vincent de Paul supports those in need in our community. Besides emergency food and supplies, money assists our neighbors and parishioners with partial payment of rent and utilities. Please write your checks to St. Vincent de Paul/St. Andrew so it goes to emergency services.

St. Andrew Bible Camp

St Andrew Bible Camp Registration for campers and counselors continues today after Mass. This year's camp will run from July 30 to August 3. Hurry, the camp fills quickly!

April Sandoval will be in the Community Center after Mass to answer questions and receive completed registration for both Bible Camp and Religious Education for 2012 - 2013. We are still looking for a few people to join our core team. Interested?

Please contact the camp directors, Carmi Lyon (503) 231-9140 or Kelly McCollum (503) 288-3320.

Peace and Justice Committee

In this age of great income disparity, many workers who clean the downtown offices struggle to make ends meet without healthcare benefits or sick days. Janitors represented by Service Employees International Union Local 49 begin contract negotiations with the janitor companies used by the Portland Downtown Building owners in June. Please consider signing cards of support for these workers. The members of the St. Andrew Peace, Justice and Ecology committee, as well as a Union janitor will be available today after Mass, and on Sunday, May 27. Questions? Please contact Jean Eilers at 503.805.2921.
