Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A PRAYER FOR GOVERNMENT
By Archbishop John Carroll

We pray Thee, O Almighty and Eternal God! Who through Jesus Christ has revealed Your glory to all nations, to preserve the works of Your mercy, that Your Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue with unchanging faith in the confession of Your Name.

We pray Thee, who alone are good and holy, to endow with heavenly knowledge, sincere zeal, and sanctity of life, our chief bishop, Pope Francis, the Vicar of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the government of his Church; our own bishop, Peter, all other bishops, prelates, and pastors of the Church; and especially those who are appointed to exercise among us the functions of the holy ministry, and conduct Your people into the ways of salvation.

We pray Thee O God of might, wisdom, and justice! Through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist with Your Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude the President of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Your people over whom he presides; by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy; and by restraining vice and immorality. Let the light of Your divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge; and may perpetuate to us the blessing of equal liberty.

We pray for his excellency, the governor of this state, for the members of the assembly, for all judges, magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare, that they may be enabled, by Your powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise, to Your unbounded mercy, all our brothers and sisters and fellow citizens throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of Your most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray to Thee, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of Your servants departed who are gone before us with the sign of faith and repose in the sleep of peace; the souls of our parents, relatives, and friends; of those who, when living, were members of this congregation, and particularly of such as are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this Church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light, and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Fr. John Carroll was a Jesuit priest, serving in Europe before moving to the colonies on the eve of the revolution. Some of his family members were instrumental in the development of Maryland, and some were even signers of the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution. He and several of these were sent on an unsuccessful mission by the Continental Congress to Canada, trying to persuade the French to join their cause. After the revolution, the US Church was in a bit of a quandary. Technically it was still a mission of London, under its bishop—even though the nation itself was now independent. The Vatican, after consultation with Benjamin Franklin, named Carroll as head of the missions in the country—a local superior who would report directly to Rome. Five years later in 1789, the American clergy requested full and formal status—with a cathedral, a diocese and a bishop. They were even allowed to make some nominations in order to prevent the perception of foreign interference in the nascent nation. Archbishop John Carroll was the first bishop appointed in the United States, serving in the Archdiocese of Baltimore until his death in 1815.

Parish & Community News

Laudato Si’

A weekly tip on Caring for Our Common Home

Pope Francis writes that the disappearance of an entire culture "can be just as serious, or even more serious, than the disappearance of a species of plant or animal." We should strive to listen to indigenous peoples, protect their lands and involve them in processes and decisions that affect them.

Saint of the Week

Every week, we highlight a particular saint. This week, we remember St. Benedict. After Christianity became legal in the Roman Empire, groups of men or women gathered into communities to make vows of holiness. But each followed its own rule, and many fell into corrupt ways. In 518, St. Benedict of Nursia wrote a rule for his monks which, because of its fairness and focus on holiness, became the basis for monasteries throughout Europe and beyond. The Rule even impacted secular society, introducing aspects of democracy and a written constitution as well as exalting the dignity of labor. We celebrate his feast on July 11.
Opportunities for Adults

We offer several ways to celebrate and grow closer to the risen Christ:

We meet twice a month in the Parish Office, and our next meeting will be Tuesday, July 9. Our topic will be “Is the Bible Important?”

The Word was made Flesh...Following Baby Jesus in the Womb
Weeks 16 and 17
Ever since the Annunciation in March, the baby Jesus has been growing in His mother Mary's womb. Nostrils and toenails are becoming visible. The baby may begin sucking his thumb, turning somersaults and developing a firm grip. The baby is beginning to develop sleep patterns. (The ovaries of girls contain the beginnings of eggs at this time.) Fetal movement, also called ‘quickening’, is usually felt between 16 and 20 weeks of pregnancy. Baby’s weight is now about 3½ ounces.
